✚ Passiontide and Holy Week. And so we enter the most solemn period in the church's year. The growing isolation of our Saviour, during this time, is marked in our own lives in a way few of us have known before; fitting then that we should walk with him this year separated from each other in body BUT NOT IN SPIRIT! Every day I will post meditations from The Way of the Cross on Facebook and our web page. For some of you this will be familiar for others the first time you have considered Christ's journey in such a way. I urge you to take your time to ponder on each step as we reflect on all that God has done for us in the sacrifice of his Son.
